Surecomp awarded 2013 SWIFT Certified Application status for IMEX trade finance solution

Tuesday 23 July 2013 | 04:56 PM CET

US provider of global trade solutions for banks and corporations Surecomp has been awarded the SWIFT Certified Application – Trade Finance label for IMEX, its high-volume back-office trade finance solution.

In 2013, the certification program has been rebranded as SWIFT Certified Applications. This change is in line with SWIFT's aim of certifying selected third-party applications to ensure that they meet the requirements of SWIFT standards, messaging and connectivity.

IMEX is a back-office trade finance system designed for banks with high volumes of trade finance activity. Serving as a real-time processing and decision-support system, IMEX supports issued and received letters of credit (L/Cs), standbys, clean and documentary collections, clean payments, guarantees, reimbursements, syndications and participations.
